

WEDDING OF MRS GALT TO PRESIDENT WILSON

a prayer and while the couple clasped their right hands together Dr. Smith declared them man and wife.

Buffet Supper Served

The entire party then turned to the dining room, where a buffet supper was served. The decorations there were in pink. The tables were decked with Lady Stanley rose blossoms. On a table in the center was the wedding cake—a fruit cake several layers high, ornamented with sprays of pink orchid. Mrs. Wilson cut the cake without formality and no arrangements were made for bestowing bits upon others than those in the wedding party.

During the ceremony and at the luncheon afterward, during which a string orchestra played, the bride wore her traveling dress, a black silk velvet gown, with a picture hat of black beaver, with no trimmings whatever except one feather slightly upturned on the left side. At her throat she wore the president's wedding gift, a magnificent diamond brooch.

The skirt of her gown was of walking length and cut on full lines. The waist had silken embroidery of blue, shading from the deep tones of royal blue to delicate shades of pastel and was threaded with silver.

Wore Gown and Coat

The lower part of the waist was embroidered on black net over a band of silver in the design of lilies, below which was a girdle of black velvet. The sleeves of the gown were of black net, fashioned in tiny tufts, with long bell-shaped cuffs of embroidered velvet, which came well down over the hand. Her collar, which was high and upstanding, was of black lace. When she left on her honeymoon journey Mrs. Wilson wore over her gown a fur coat of broadtail with bands of Yukon and muff to match. She wore a chin-chin collar.

List of Guests

The guests at the wedding included: Mrs. William H. Bolling of this city, the bride's mother; Mrs. Mat-thew H. Maury, Anniston, Ala.; Mrs. Alexander H. Galt, of this city and Miss Bertha Bolling, sisters of the bride; her five brothers, John Randolph Bolling, Richard W. Bolling and Julian B. Bolling of this city; Dr. W. E. Bolling, Louisville, Ky., and Rolfe E. Bolling of Panama; her brother-in-law, Alexander H. Galt, of this city; three sisters-in-law, Mrs. Julian B. Bolling, Mrs. Rolfe E. Bolling and Mrs. Richard W. Bolling; Secretary and Mrs. William G. McAdoo; Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Sayre of Williamstown, Mass; Miss Margaret Wilson; Miss Helen Woodrow Bones, the president's cousin; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Wilson, of Baltimore, the former the brother of the president; Miss Alice Wilson, the president's niece; Josephine Cochran, the president's grand-niece; Secretary Tumulty; Dr. Grayson and Miss Gertrude Gordon, Mrs. Galt's close friends.

Magnificent Trousseau

Mrs. Wilson's trousseau is said by close friends to be magnificent in its extent and to have cost several thousand dollars. Most of it is American made and the best shops in the United States were called upon to supply what the bride's friends say is one of the largest and most carefully selected wardrobes ever gathered by any mistress of the White House.

Made Clean Getaway

The ruse by which the wedding party got away to Alexandria was complete. When the White House automobile pulled away from Mrs. Wilson's house lines of police blocked pursuit in all the adjoining streets. At the union station the presidential entrance was fully lighted and lines of police were spread all about. Those who were attracted to the railroad station by the show of preparation were disappointed while the president and Mrs. Wilson were speeding to the station across the river ten miles away.

After the president and his bride had departed Secretary Tumulty made the final statement of the ceremony:

"The wedding was marked with simplicity. It was just such a wedding as might have taken place in the home of the humblest American citizen."

Interesting Comparison.

"It beats all how luck does play favorites," remarked Farmer Cornstossel. "I jes' been to see Ezra Hankins."

"How's he gettin' along since he hurt his foot?"

"He's purty glum. The doctor charged him $100 fur cuttin' his foot off. An' when the railroad cut off Uncle Jake's foot the company paid him $900 in cash. Maybe these great corporations ain't as graspin' as some people says."—Washington Star.

Force of Habit.

"See here, boss, I ordered tripe and beans, with coffee, and the waitress has brought me a lettuce sandwich and a cup of weak tea."

"You must excuse her, sir. All due to absentmindedness. She's a former society girl, and she can't seem to grasp the idea that a quick lunch is not a function."—Chicago News.
